

EARTH RESOURCES TO TRADE

WOOD

- There are no trees on Plutopia.
- Earthlings have brought some to trade.
- Plutopians are interested in building with wood.

WATER

- Plutopians have water, but it is very rare.
- Most water comes from Plutopia's second-largest moon and must be filtered and refined.
- Plutopians would like more water from Earth.
- Water is heavy, so not a lot for Earthlings to transport and trade.

HOUSE CATS

- Plutopians don't have pets.
- They are super popular since first Earthlings showed Plutopians cat videos.
- Popularity means Plutopians could resell them for a high price.
- Earthlings have brought some to trade.

AGRICULTURAL TECHNOLOGY

- Plutopians not as advanced as Earthlings in agriculture.
- Interested in Earth agriculture and technology to grow crops.
- Tractors and farming equipment are very big, so Earthlings could bring only one tractor.

VEGETABLES AND SEEDS

- Plutopians only grow vegetables that don't need much water.
- Plutopians are very interested in fresh vegetables.
- Earthlings have brought lots of vegetables and seeds.

JEWELLERY, EARTH CLOTHES AND MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS

- Unique objects from Earth.
- Earthlings have brought some of each to trade.

PLUTOPIA

RESOURCES

TO TRADE

SPACESHIPS

- Plutopians have more advanced spaceships.
- Earthlings really want a spaceship to bring back.
- Will help engineers on Earth to build better ships.
- Will make future trade missions easier.

PLUTOPIAN BEANS

- Plutopians can make all sorts of meals out of them.
- Scientists on Earth want to study the beans to use as a cheap, nutritious food.

OIL

- Plutopia is rich in oil.
- Earthlings want to trade for as much as they can.

SPACE SOUVENIRS, SPACE CLOTHES AND SPACE CANDY

- Earthlings are keen to get their hands on unique Plutopian things.
- Earthlings would pay a lot of money for a souvenir of Earth's first trade mission to Plutopia.
- Plutopian candy is delicious and would be popular on Earth.

IRON, GOLD AND PLUTOPIUM

- Plutopia has a lot of mines with gold and iron.
- Gold and iron are valuable on Earth, so the Earthlings want to trade for as much as they can.
- Rare metal called Plutonium is used to build their spaceships.
- Engineers on Earth want to study this metal for advanced technology.
