

Money

conversation cards

for teens
and adults

Cut on the dotted line

How do you think different payment methods (such as cash, debit or credit) affect how you shop?

How do you determine if something is a need or a want?

When is debt useful, and when is it a burden?

What is something you regret purchasing? Why?

How can you motivate yourself to plan for the future when it's so far away?

What advice would you give for saving money?

When choosing a job, how much does the pay matter to you?

What do you think taxes pay for, and what do you think they should pay for?

If you could start a small business, what would it be?

How do you decide who to give money to or when to help?

How would you describe your relationship with money in five words?

What's one thing you could do today to become smarter with money?

Does money motivate you?

How do your financial choices affect the rest of the world?

Steady employment or entrepreneurship: what appeals to you and what worries you about each?

What would the world be like if everyone had the same amount of money?

What do the images on our coins and bank notes say about us?

Where do you learn about finances and money?

How do you think the value of work is decided?

How much money do you think you need to live a good life?